Jesus said to them,
"Whose likeness and inscription is this?"
They said, "Caesar's." Then he said to them,
"Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

Matthew 22:20-21

Today Fr Thomas Fink-Jensen is the Celebrant, and Fr Richard Smail is the Preacher.

Opening Hymn: 417

The Collect: O God, our refuge and strength, who art the author of all godliness: Be ready, we beseech thee, to hear the devout prayers of thy Church; and grant that those things which we ask faithfully we may obtain effectually; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Epistle: Philippians 3:17-end
A reading from the Epistle of St Paul to the Philippians:

Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things.

But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: 493

The Gospel: Matthew 22:15-22
The Lord be with you. And with thy spirit.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew, Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Then the Pharisees went and plotted how to entangle him in his words. And they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying,

"Teacher, we know that you are true and teach the way of God truthfully, and you do not care about anyone's opinion, for you are not swayed by appearances. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why put me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin for the tax." And they brought him a denarius. And Jesus said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" They said, "Caesar's."

Then he said to them, "Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." When they heard it, they marvelled. And they left him and went away.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Act of Remembrance
Following the Homily we move to the War Memorial, where the Celebrant introduces the Act of Remembrance.

The names of the dead are read by the Churchwarden(s).

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, not the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them. We will remember them.

The Last Post is played, followed by The Silence and Reveille.

Ever-living God, we remember those whom Thou hast gathered from the storm of war into the peace of Thy presence; may that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.
And let light perpetual shine upon them.
+ May they rest in peace. Amen.

The National Anthem (489, v. 1-2) is sung, after which we continue with the Intercessions and Peace.

Offertory Hymn: 351

Communion Hymn: 492

Post Communion Prayer: Most gracious God, whose Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom: renew thy people with thy heavenly grace and in all our weakness sustain us by thy true and living bread; who liveth and reigneth, now and for ever. Amen.

Recessional Hymn: 339
